

Human Sexuality Study Guide

Test: Wednesday, October 14, 2015

Multiple Choice, Matching, True/False, Short Answer, Labeling

Growth

- What are changes that occurring in the body during the time period known as puberty?
- How is the body changing? Is it different for males and females?
- What about maturation? Understanding how to deal with different situations?

Pregnancy

- What hormones is released to alert the female body that it is pregnant?
- Who determines the gender of the baby?
- What should the mother due to ensure the health of the fetus, newborn, and mother at optimal?
- What is the process that occurs to allow fertilization? What is going on during the next 36 weeks?
- Key vocabulary terms

Sexual Feelings

- Are sexual feelings for others appropriate? What are they a sign of?
- What are some different types of affection?
- What causes sexual feelings to occur?
- What role does abstinence play?

Male/Female Reproductive System

- Know the parts of each system, where they are located and their purpose
- What is the purpose of the menstrual cycle in the female?

Teen Pregnancy and Marriage

- Are there positives and negatives? What are they?
- What are some of the consequences of teen pregnancy? Dropout rates?
- What is marriage?
- What are effective communication methods for successful relationships/marriages?

Issues with Sexuality

- Know the pertinent vocabulary from this section
- Be able to identify ways to cope with and handle situations

STDs

- Know the name and symptoms of ones covered in class
- How are they spread?
- What can they lead to?
- Possible treatment methods
- HIV/AIDS statistics and information

All notes are available online at the class website: hhs.helenaschools.org/teachers/bkessler