Scholarship Application

Trade careers are essential for the smooth functioning of a society.

In today's world, many students face pressure to pursue traditional degrees rather than trade school, despite the many opportunities in the trades. Students interested in hands-on service careers, such as welding, electrical engineering, or plumbing, need to be encouraged to attend trade school and refine their skills.

This scholarship aims to support high school seniors and current trade school students who are interested in pursuing careers in the trades. **Montana Residents ONLY
