"I was hesitant to start a new project but with the ACT test fast approaching I wanted the students to try something new and refreshing and I am glad I did. After meeting with Mrs. Didriksen and Mr. Belliveau regarding Podcasts, the students and I embarked into new territory. The vocab podcast assignment was a refreshing method for the students to write, study, and put to practical use vocabulary terms. I will try this project again." -- Randy Hussey

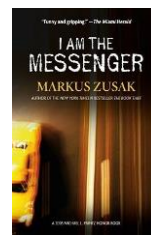

"The students loved working with Mrs. Didriksen and Mr. Belliveau in the library. The book trailers they produced based on their quarter three independent reading are so impressive. I will absolutely do this project again, and I'm looking forward to the next opportunity collaborate with our wonderful librarians. 10/10 recommend! Amazing!" -- Sally McHugh
